Colonel White has suggested that I be briefed on this and follow up. However, since final action depends upon the resolution of another major question, I will leave it to you to suggest the date for such a briefing.

Colonel White is interested in any further reasoning by the Security Office to support their statement that they do not agree with the recommendation.

#15

As soon as the Management Staff completes its survey of the Security Office, this question can be resolved. When you have a copy of their findings, would you please let me know.

#17

Since this stated that formal discussion of the question would be held at the next meeting of the Security Office Career Board, would you be good enough to fill me in on this at your earliest convenience.

#18

Colonel White remarked in this context: "Standardize if possible." Can you tell me what you are proceeding to do about this matter at present?

Sec. b.

Colonel White has asked that I follow up with you as soon as possible on this section.

Recommendation No.

Action

#20 - Action,
Sec. g.

It has been left to [REDACTED]
SA-DD/A, to follow up on this matter with the Comptroller.

#20 - Action,
Sec. h.

Colonel White says "I agree."

#20 - Action,
Sec. i.

Colonel White has asked me to follow up on this, and adds: "See program for next conference and participate." Can you enlighten me on dates and places?

#20 - Action,
Sec. j.

Colonel White has requested a follow-up and progress report by 1 November 1954.

#20 - Action,
Sec. k.

Of this one, Colonel White has said: "Do this - some day, however." This appears to be rather long range and perhaps the best way to approach it would be to ask you for some indication by 1 January 1955 as to whether or not the problem is being dealt with.

#20 - Action,
Sec. l.

Colonel White has approved this section,
but he is interested to know of the progress being made in maintaining comprehensive statistics such as those that were criticized for their absence by the Inspector General.

3. If any of the above is not clear and further consultation is needed, please call me at your convenience.
